Dear Santa: I am a very small infant and my wishes for the present are very few. If it is not asking too much of you, it would give me great and unlimited pleasure should you be so good as to fill up my hose this Christmas. I have two and I think you might find something to put in them. I think I might be able to manipulate a Brownie Camera, and I would very much like a sot of tin soldiers, as I have ampirations along that line, also a toy cannon, like they have at Fortress Monroe, you know, the kind that won't go off, unless you allow them to. I want a tea set, a doil named Ruth (no other name will do).

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy just starting to school and will have to get my mamma to write this letter to you for me. Please bring us our Christmas tree, also soldier suit, drum, train that runs on a track, horn, fireworks and goodles. Also bring my brother. John, a soldier suit, horn, drum. Why with a whistic on the end, sword and goodles, Please don't forget our baby brother. Edward.
